

In, Out and In Between: A Gender & Sexuality Spectrum Group

Submitted by d7admin on Fri, 09/15/2017 - 2:53pm

This group welcomes all folks on the LGBTQIA+ spectrum and those who are questioning. The purpose of this group is to foster connection and provide members with an affirming space. In the past, this group has discussed relationships, family, intersectional identity, coming out, spirituality and other areas of life that may feel difficult to discuss elsewhere.

This group requires an initial assessment at CAPS ^[1]. The therapist will help you schedule a brief screening interview to see that the group will adequately address your reasons for coming to the group.

Use the group interest form ^[2] with questions or to express interest in this group to the facilitator(s).

Meeting Day and Time:

Friday 10:30 am - 12pm

Group Type:

Theme/Support ^[3]

Status:

Full

Facilitated By:

Kyle Alexander, LCSW & Carolyn Ebeling, LCSWA

Source URL: <https://caps.unc.edu/out-and-between-gender-sexuality-spectrum-group>

Links

[1] <https://caps.unc.edu/services/initial-assessments>

[2] <https://caps.unc.edu/services/group-therapy/how-join-group>

[3] <https://caps.unc.edu/group-therapy-types/themesupport>