

Carolyn Ebeling, MSW, LCSWA

Body:

Carolyn (they/them) is a Post-MSW Fellow at CAPS. They are originally from St. Louis, MO and moved to Carrboro, NC in 2014. Carolyn received a Bachelor of Arts in English from UNC Chapel Hill and a Master of Social Work (MSW) from UNC's School of Social Work. Carolyn's professional interests include substance use, family of origin challenges, LGBTQ+ community, trauma and survivorship, relationships and transitions. Their work is informed by a variety of therapeutic modalities, and they are continuing to learn and grow.

Outside of CAPS, Carolyn enjoys running, reading and spending time with their partner and dog. Their favorite books include suspense and thriller novels.

Position Title:

Post-MSW Social Work Fellow

Image - 290 x 260:

Source URL: <https://caps.unc.edu/about-us/our-staff/carolyn-ebeling-msw-lcswa>